2011 Haragan Lecture
Carol Mimura, Ph.D.
“Global Public-Private Partnerships: Collaboration to Traverse Funding Gaps and Maximize Social Impact”
THURSDAY, September 29, 5:30-6:30pm
Human Sciences Lecture Hall 169
Reception to follow in the Canyon Room (Outside lecture hall)

- Internationally known microbiologist
- Assistant Vice Chancellor for Intellectual Property & Industry Research Alliances (IPIRA) at the University of California, Berkeley
- Expert in Chemical Biodynamics and Biotechnology

Carol Mimura is a member of the Forum on Drug Discovery, Development, and Translation of the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences, has served on the Board of directors of the Children’s Hospital Research Institute in Oakland, CA and BayBio, the regional voice of biotechnology in Northern California, and was a former Executive Director of U.C. Berkeley’s Office of Technology Licensing. Prior to her positions at U.C. Berkeley, Carol was an analyst at Technology Forecasters, a consultant to Cor Therapeutics and Genomyx and wrote for the Genetic Engineering News.

Dr. Mimura holds a B.S. degree from Yale University in Molecular Biophysics & Biochemistry and Ph.D. in Biology (biochemistry & microbiology concentration) from Boston University. She was a NIH-sponsored postdoctoral fellow and research scientist at U.C. Berkeley.

Carol’s public policy articles describe IPIRA’s nuanced intellectual property management strategies to promote social impact and it’s Socially Responsible Licensing Program.

Donors, please contact the Senior Development Officer for Arts & Sciences, at 806.742.3833